

Meme Media Statement of Compliance - Modern Slavery and the Supply Chain

Our Business Model

Meme Media is a graphic design company specialising in the production of quality design and print for the leisure industry.

In compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015, Meme offers the following statement regarding its efforts to prevent slavery and human trafficking in its supply chain.

Policies and training relating to Modern Slavery within the organisation

Meme Media is committed to social and environmental responsibility and has zero tolerance for slavery and human trafficking. We hold ourselves and our supply chain accountable and we fully comply with the provisions of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. We recognise that modern slavery is a complex supply chain issue, and we work in partnership with our Customers, Suppliers and other organisations to help develop long-term solutions to this issue.

Supply Chain Management

We internally review our supply chain to evaluate human trafficking risks and slavery risks and we conduct supplier audits which review all aspects of the supply chain including safety, human trafficking, child labour and other legal requirements.

Demonstration of our Commitment

We hold proof that our suppliers adhere to the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
